AS TWILIGHT FALLS.

(Reverie.)

W. F. SUDDS, Op. 120.

Andante con espress.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of four systems of music. Each system contains a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo/mood is indicated as 'Andante con espress.'. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, accents, and dynamic markings. Pedal markings ('Ped') are placed below the bass staff at specific points, often accompanied by an asterisk (*). The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system also has a 'Ped' marking. The third system has 'Ped' markings at the end of the first and third measures. The fourth system starts with a forte (f) dynamic and has 'Ped' markings at the end of the first, second, and fourth measures.

THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS. NATIONAL SCHOOL FOR THE PIANO-FORTE.

BY W. F. SUDDS.

INCOMPARABLY THE BEST.

Endorsed by Press and Profession.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs, while for those who are compelled to become self-taught players, it will be found the most valuable aid ever published. We would call attention briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing lessons, to be fitted out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties, than other works of the kind contain.

2. The exercises are more carefully graded, introducing the pupil to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanations, which are usually left for the teacher to give orally, are, as far as possible, written in detail.

3. The art of fingering, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.

4. It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and Thorough-bass, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-forte Methods.

5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this too, is peculiar to the work.

6. It is the only piano school which treats at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much abused, "pedal." On this subject alone, the work is of priceless value to the young student.

7. We find among its contents, the subject of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.

8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable repertoire of piano music, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, Brahms, and others, with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performance of each.

9. And last but not least, is included a dictionary of music, with proper pronunciation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent ancient and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" opens to the student the shortest and best possible road to proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and recognized talent of the editor, as evinced in former works. And after a glance at the foregoing, it is almost superfluous to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials fully endorsing the above claims:

What New England says:

THOS. F. L. MASON, Bath, Me.
The "National School" is rightly named. From what I know of your work as author, I can only say that it is just what we need, and it is just what we need, and it is just what we need. No instruction book that I am acquainted with contains so much, in so simple a manner, as this. I hope it may meet the success it merits.

JACOB STEINMAN (Boston Conservatory of Music), Boston, Mass.
I find "National School" a useful and well-placed work, well adapted for its purpose and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish you all success.

TH. BISH, Boston, Mass.
An exhaustive and valuable book.

S. BATH, New Haven, Conn.
One of the best of all piano schools published in the United States.

C. H. BISH, New Haven, Conn.
The publisher does not claim enough for "National School." It is a most unusual work, and it is a most unusual work, and it is a most unusual work.

F. A. FOWLER, New Haven, Conn.
I consider this "National School" the best of all piano schools published in the United States.

A. S. BROWN, Springfield, Mass.
I can confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction book complete in all the details of piano-forte playing.

DR. LOUIS MAAS, Boston, Mass.
After a careful survey of "National School" I am very glad to tell you that I think it one of the very best books of that description that has been brought under my notice. It is simple, comprehensive and not exhaustive—containing everything that can be sought for in anything of the kind. I shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in my power.

What the Middle States say:

ALBANY (N. Y.) MORRIS KERRAN.
Designed to bring a large sale.

MORRIS K. KERRAN, Middletown, N. Y.
The "National School" is well pleased with "National School."

JULIA (N. Y.) MORRIS KERRAN.
An admirable and valuable work.

MORRIS K. KERRAN, Middletown, N. Y.
The "National School" is a most excellent and complete work for the piano-forte, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

OSCAR Y. BRUNSON, Philadelphia, Pa.
I find "National School" an excellent work. As a book for teachers of the piano-forte, it can be strongly recommended.

ALFRED ROSSMAN, Eschen, Pa.
I have been very partial to Richardson's justly popular method, but having some time ago acquired more complete facilities myself and with other explanations as a student of many piano-forte details, I find that "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones, viz: Elaborating and instructive direct remarks upon the proper use of the pedal; clear explanations of the various embellishments; better studies of modern masters, Heller, Kahler, Flury, and others; the exercises upon scales and chords upon vocal accompaniment; the excellent and biographical dictionary, etc., by no means the least important. The book is well illustrated with its numerous examples.

J. M. BROWN, Philadelphia, Pa.
The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and thoroughness, and to say that the preliminary part has been thoroughly worked, and well made judgment displayed in the selection of the vocal studies, etc. I have nothing but praise, encouragement, for the writing, the several dictionaries, and the short but satisfying reading on harmony.

A. M. FRIEDMAN, Allentown, Pa.
"National School" is a very thorough and simple work. It contains everything that can be desired by teachers or pupils.

ALAN GARRER, Philadelphia, Pa.
In every way I find "National School" the most practical work for that kind of instrument—the piano—that has ever been brought to my notice, and I feel that I can say confidently, and without reservation, that it is not only a thorough instruction, but also a complete encyclopedia, which I can recommend most heartily to the profession.

A. M. ROSSMAN, Philadelphia, Pa.
I have thoroughly examined "National School" and have no hesitation in recommending it to all who wish for a complete and thorough instruction in piano-forte playing. It is a most valuable and complete work, and I can only say that it is a most valuable and complete work.

J. M. BROWN, Philadelphia, Pa.
I find "National School" a grand success in every way.

J. M. BROWN, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is really the best piano instruction ever published in this country.

G. W. SWEETMAN, Allentown, N. Y.
I consider "National School" a most valuable and complete work for the piano-forte, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

W. W. GRIMMER, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is a most excellent and complete work for the piano-forte, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

MARSHALL W. WARNER, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work, having the different grades of both well explained and thoroughly worked, without being too voluminous.

LOUIS HENSON, New York.
I have carefully examined "National School" and find it a very thorough work, superior to any method published.

ALAN GARRER, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is a very valuable work. It will give me pleasure to recommend it.

DONLEY HUGHES, Brooklyn, N. Y.
I have examined "National School" and am glad to say that I think you have compiled a good work, covering all essential points of piano playing, and which, properly made use of, cannot fail to produce good players. I wish that you will be rewarded for the labor and pains you have so wisely taken.

MARSHALL W. WARNER, New York.
"National School" will prove a most satisfactory model work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form, and most of the studies and exercises such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

What the Southern States say:

W. H. SMITH, Wheeling, W. Va.
I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

FRANCIS (W. Va.) BOWEN.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

B. R. BOWEN, Wheeling, W. Va.
I have examined "National School" and find it a very complete work. It contains all the great principles of an instructor—comprehensive, progressive, and sympathetic—in a word, "National School" is a most valuable book of instruction and reference.

What the Western States say:

J. H. CAMPBELL, Indianapolis, Ind.
I find "National School" a most valuable and complete work for the piano-forte, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

SARAH (Ind.) CAMPBELL, Indianapolis, Ind.
This book is well fitted to be a standard for all.

CHICAGO (Ill.) CAMPBELL, Indianapolis, Ind.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

E. A. KERRAN, Knoxville, Ill.
I am highly pleased with "National School." I think it one of the most complete works on piano-forte that I have seen. I shall adopt it with my pupils.

H. J. TERRY, Cleveland, O.
Your "National School" I find to be a most excellent work. It has many advantages over every method of the kind, that I cannot fail to use the book.

A. L. HANCOCK & Co., New Franklin, Cal.
"National School" is a fine work.

I. G. LORRAINE, Los Angeles, Cal.
"National School" is certainly a very good work, and pronounced as by all who have seen it.

HENRY BAKER, Japan, Mich.
The use of "National School" should be universal, for it has more for the student than any other similar work. Its illustrations and explanations are a most valuable aid to the teacher and the many other good things are all appreciated. It is a gem.

Mrs. M. W. KERRAN, Plymouth, Ind.
I have examined your "National School" and pronounce it an excellent work.

O. W. WARNER, Knoxville, Ind.
"National School" is without doubt, one of the best, comprehensive methods, I wish you the success the fruits of the book deserve.

WILL T. TUCKER, the popular song writer, East Liverpool, Ohio.
"National School" is a most valuable work of a thorough musician. I feel that it will become a standard.

J. H. TERRY, Knoxville, Ind.
"National School" is the best book of its class I have ever examined—best for beginners, best for intermediates, best for advanced pupils. It has instruction, but, as a complete, history and biography combined in one. It has no equal, and it is the work of a master musician. Our pupils, Mrs. Terry, agree with me.

C. J. WARNER, Detroit, Mich.
"National School" is the best work of the kind as ever published, and it will certainly become popular.

Canada's Verdict:

CARL MATHIAS, Toronto, Ontario.
I can truly say that I see much to admire in your "National School." I think it the best school of its kind, and it will certainly have a very large sale, and will be the most successful teacher in Canada and the United States.

LEWIS (N. Y.) CAMPBELL, Indianapolis, Ind.
It will be found the most valuable aid ever published.
